MY FAMILY

My family is a big joint family however a happy family. My whole family live in Indore. My family includes various members like grandparents, parents, brothers, sisters, uncle, aunt, and cousins. My joint family contains three big nuclear families in which a common grandparents and three parents with their many children. There are many advantages and disadvantages of the joint family which I have mentioned below. Here are some advantages of the joint family: It provides a better pattern of living which highly contributes to the proper growth. The joint family follows principles of equitable economy and teaches quality discipline to respect and share the burden of other members. Members of a joint family have the understanding of mutual adjustment. In a big joint family, children get a happy environment and same age group friends forever thus the new generation of the family goes better in the study, sports and other activities without any hesitation.

Children developing in a joint family develop the feeling of camaraderie means become more sociable and free from any discrimination. Members of the joint family become responsible and disciplined and everyone follows the orders of the head of the family. There are some disadvantages too of the joint family Sometimes because of the lack of proper rules in the joint family, some members live as parasites and become habitual of feeding on other's income. They start exploiting other good and innocent members of the family

There is a big chance of separation in the joint families because of an imbalance of feelings of generosity, brotherly love, and feeling of oneness.
